

John Class

had a lifelong fascination with stories, especially biblical stories. Stories somehow always ended at the grave. The promise of the resurrection of the dead would change this, and he envisioned stories in another dimension. Yes, it is electrifying to realize every story is going to be taken up again in the time of the regeneration—in the resurrection of the dead.

In this book he opens a window to a whole new dimension of drama. If there is a resurrection of the dead, then the stage is set for the second act of those who are ALIVE AGAIN!

He was convinced that every human being, you included, will live again in the Paradise on the good earth and not in a nebulous heaven.

He has written five books to cover the experiences of the regenerated human race under Christ's rule—Alive Again, From Ashes to Beauty, Fingers Stained with Evil, Adam and Eve Live Again and When the Thousand Years Expire.
