

John Class had a lifelong fascination with stories, especially biblical stories. Stories somehow always ended at the grave. The promise of the resurrection of the dead would change this, and he envisioned stories in another dimension. His regeneration stories continue to unfold through seven thousand years of history as the regeneration expands.

In Adam and Eve Live Again, our first parents make their grand entrance to life again. They learn how their children behaved in their absence and bring their experience and knowledge to bear on the issues that confront mankind.

John Class was convinced that every human being, you included, will live again in Paradise on the good earth and not in a nebulous heaven.

He has written five books to cover the experiences of the regenerated human race under Christ's rule—Alive Again, From Ashes to Beauty, Fingers Stained with Evil, Adam and Eve Live Again and When the Thousand Years Expire.
